of an era of business activity, and urrent publie pecessities combined in the demant for attention from merchants, capitalists and all interested in the progress of the city, and aided the effort of the managers of the board. They canvassed the cityl personally and 565, besides $105,060 more, interest due until were rewarded by an addition of two hundred January, 1885, on Central Pacific railroad names to the roll, of membership. These new members were of every class--wholesale and state as assessed for state purposes, is $658,691,retail merchants, lawyers, railroad officials, publishers - the clergy, even, being represented by the Rev. George H. Atkinson. The monthly dues were placed at $1 50, a total meusbership of two hundred and forty-seven affording an income equal to the necessities of the board, and enabling it to broaden its op-

The board got well on its feet under the new management in November last and since then has been an active business force. In the past few months it has accomplished measures of the highest importance. It has sent a delegate to Washington-Hon. D. P. Thompson-in the matter of river improvement. It secured the assignment of our representative in the house of representatives to the commerce committee. It started the movement to put offiAttest: It. Philips of Zena, Oregon, a daughter. in connection with the O. R. & N. Co., sent three delegates to Idaho to consult with the merchants of that section with reference to turning their trade to Portland. It has secured a permanent crest for the Cape Disappointment life-saving station. It has, through its delegate to Washington, obtained the promise for six stake lights on the Columbia river. It has raised its voice against the attempt to rob the Northern Pacific of its land grant, against the Hawaiian treaty, and will ask the legislature at its coming session to remedy the pilot laws.

By request of the chief signal officer the board has appointed a meteorological committee which makes monthly inspections of the signal station here, and reports any recommendations it may deem necessary for improving the same; makes monthly statements of the condition of the office, and also aids the signal officer to secure anything needed for the McCoy, Cheapest Printer, First and Stark. successful working of his office

Mr. Benjamin I. Cohen was engaged as assistant secretary and statistician, and he immediately opened a set of commercial records. In another book are recorded the entries and clearances of the port, the name of each vessel arriving or departing, her master, tonnege, destination, cargo, consignee and charter rate being given. A daily report of all articles received or shipped by both the river and ocean divisions of the Oregon Hailway and Navigation Company is recorded; and also a similar monthly report of the business of the Oregon and California Railroad Company, and a weekly report of the produce carrying basiness of Wells, Fargo & Co. Those records are open to public examination and may be seen at the office of the very efficient assistant secretary, Mr. Cohen, in the counting room of Messrs. Corbitt & Maclesy. The board of trade has come to be an intelligent and an active guardien of the business interests of Portland, and for its new usefulness great credit is due President Donald Macleay and Secretary F. K. Arnold.

THE SIGNAL SERVICE.

The senate committee on military affairs has under consideration a plan to reorganize the signal service, making it a distinctive bureau under the jurisdiction of the war department. The signal service is now conducted by officers of the army, who are not always selected for scientific acquirements, and its expense is charged to the annual army oppropriations. The duties of the service and the advantages resulting from it beer little or no relation to the army. The commercial interests of the country receive the greater share of the benetited of the signal service, and its extension, which is rapidly going on, is whelly in the interest of commerce and agriculture. To tax the charges of this expensive business upon the army, and to require its work to be done by officers of the army, is manifestly unjust. It is argued that military discipline is nocessary to efficiency of the service by enforcing promptness, but this is folly. There are no more striking examples of promptness and efficiency than the leading Amdican newspapers, which get on very well without army pers, which get on very well without army gets and travelers of regulations. And so any business if conducted for six. For sale every with vigor will develop a system adapted to its needs, and better far than any other, the development of different purposes and methods. The signal service should be made inde- ALL KINDS OF JEWELRY, pondent of the army. Give it a good head and it will run itself without a borrowed discipline,

Analysis by the Chlenge Tribune's Washington Correspondent.

ros. March 1.-On the last of July, 1986

the sout was resuled from the treasury depart-it groung a complete analysis of the processed of Partic debt of the United States from July 1.

to July 1, 1889. A continuation of this data to

Clerk of the committee on ways and means, has prepared the following analysis of the financial transactions of the government for the month of transactions of the government for the month of February:
The reduction in the public debt for February is $9.783,611, and for the eight mentas ending yesterday, $97,803,43, which is equal to a monthly reduction during the current facal year of nearly $12,250,000. The reduction for last month is $2,000,000 below that for February, 1881, but the aggregate reduction for the eight months of the current facal year exceeds that for the corresponding months of fast, year by $55,633,000. Compared with March I, 1891, the aggregate of the public debt, deducting cash in the treasury, shows a reduction of $132,286,687. This sum represents the measure of reduction in the interest hearing debt opligations of the government for the twelve calendar months ending with yesterday, which amount is $30,000,000 in excess of the reduction for the twelve calendar months ending Feb. 28, 1881.

THE AVAILABLE CASH BALANCE Is $155,147,389, an increase of $11,250,000 compared with Feb. 1. The current liabilities on account of debt on which interest has caused was reduced $4,000,000 during the month, the aggregate of this debt now outstanding, including interest being less than $15,000,000. The freasurer's attainent of Habilities and assets shows an increase for the month in gold cain and gold bullion of $8,000,000, the amount of this fund now being nearly $174,000,000. The standard allver dollars on hand show ser increase of nearly $2,750,000 since Feb. 1. The number of these pieces now in the treasury is 75,000,000.

Of this amount Is $155,147,389, an increase of $11,250,000 compared with Feb. 1. The current liabilities on account of SERTY MILLIONS ARE COVERED BY OUTSTANDING SIL-VER CERTIFICATES, Leaving but $15,000,000 of the $70,000,000 now in the treasury as the property of the government. There trensury as the property of the government. There is no material change since the last report in the amount of United States and national bank notes held by the treasurer, which is now $35,000,000. The receipts for February, compared with the corresponding monty of lest year, show an increase of $3,000,000. The receipts from customs exceeded those for February, 1831, by $3,800,000, while those from internal revenue and infections are restured. from internal revenue and miscellanrous resources fell off about $600,000. The following table: will show the recolpts for February compared with the same month of last year:

$28,175,210 $31,203,860 THE ORDINARY EXPENDITURES During the month, which do not include interest on the debt were nearly $18,000,000, of which amount about $9,000,000 were on account of pensions. On Feb. 1, the quarterly interest on the extended 3 per cent, bonds, amounting to $3,500,000, became; due and psymble, and to day the quarterly interest on $3, ner cent, bonds, amounting to ready $2,000,000 becames

Wall Street Delly News.
In the early days of railroading in Missouri saixfoot stranger, with a bad look in his eye, one day entered a statum on the fine of the Blank and Dash Road, pulled out ten shares of stock in the company, and inquired of the statum master if there were any dividends on the stock and inquired of the station master if there were any dividends ou the stock.

"Never heard of any," was the reply.

"Didn't anybody ever try to collect dividends?"

"It they did they didn't ket anything."

"This stock ought to pay 10 per cent.," continued the stranger. "Here's a $1000. Ten per cent. a year would be $100. I've held these sheers three mentles, which would be $75. Parduer, I want my divy?"

"But I've nothing to do with it! You must go to Bt. Lenna."

"For I've noming to do with it! You must go to it. Loung."

"Too.fur away! I'm going to collect here and save time! Pligrim, count out my divy!"

The above peroration was tolkowed by the sight of a six-shooter and an expression which meant hast ness, and the agent didn't commune three minntes counting out the menney, which the airanger took and waiked out with the remark that he never invested in any stock paying less than 10 per cent, and didn't believe in cumulative dividends. This was the only dividend paid by that road for thirteen years, and that agent on a salary of $40 per month had to utand that.
